

Past Student Spotlight Carolyn Salmon (1999)

Carolyn Nikoloski, nee Salmon.

Carolyn graduated in 1999 as DUX of St George SHS. Since graduating she attended UQ and gained her degree in Psychological Science. Carolyn has since completed her Masters in Public Health and Public Policy and Management.

Carolyn has recently been appointed as the new Chief Executive Officer of Mental Health Australia. This is a wonderful achievement after gaining over 15 years' experience in the mental health sector, having held the position of chief strategy officer at Beyond Blue, and serves as a Director of national health promotion charity Prevention United.
